

THREE PORTS ARE SEIZED

Admiral Calliard Swoops Down on Island of Mitylene

UNDER SEALED ORDERS

French Mean Business and Will Have Satisfaction.

SULTAN MUST SETTLE

France Explains to World Her Position in Matter.

Paris, Nov. 5.—An official dispatch announces the arrival of Admiral Calliard's squadron this morning at the island of Mitylene.

Admiral Calliard has occupied the three principal ports of the island of Mitylene. Telegrams from Toulon report the utmost activity in the preparations to place a squadron in readiness for any eventuality. The ships are taking ammunition and supplies, including live stock and everything necessary to re-visit Adm. Calliard's squadron. The battleship Charles Martel, the third-class cruiser Galilee, and three large transports are ready to sail. It is asserted that one of Admiral Calliard's ships has a submarine on board.

The Echo de Paris asserts that M. Delcasse has received a dispatch from M. Bapst, councillor of the French embassy in Constantinople, saying that Admiral Calliard informs him that he has seized the customs of the island of Mitylene.

Following is the dispatch received from Admiral Calliard: "Mitylene, Nov. 5.—11:40 a. m.—Armoured division arrived at Mitylene."

The dispatch does not mention any incident attending the landing, but it seems certain that the French commander carried out his instructions which were to occupy the three ports of the island and to seize the customs of the island.

Three torpedo cutters got separated from the squadron, owing to the speed of the latter.

The dispatch boat Mousette, which had joined the squadron, was sent to meet them and to accompany them to Mitylene.

The correspondent of the Associated Press is enabled to make the following statement:

When the French government decided to send a French squadron to Turkey, it debated whether to seize the customs at Salonica, Beirut or Smyrna, as it was realized that the receipts of one of these three big ports would be required to produce a sufficient sum to pay off the French claims without a long occupation, which was considered inadvisable.

The occupation of Salonica was at once discarded because it might create the false impression that France was trying to render the Turkish empire a question. The occupation of Beirut was also not advised, owing to the French position and interests in Syria, where the population looks upon France as its protector.

The occupation of Beirut, therefore, was certain to create effervescence and perhaps even rebellion. The choice of M. Delcasse consequently fell on Smyrna, which offers great advantages to the other two without having their political drawbacks.

Saturday, however, came the dispatch from M. Bapst, announcing the seizure of the Sultan's trade, accepting the Lorraino claim in its entirety, as France demanded. This dispatch slightly modified the aspect of the situation inasmuch as M. Delcasse came to the conclusion that the Sultan would now settle the money claims, and would within a few days produce the guarantees which France demanded for their payment.

The necessity for seizing big customs, therefore, became less pressing, although the necessity for occupying Turkish territory in order to exercise pressure and compel the Sultan to concede the demand respecting Turkey's disregard of the French treaty rights still remained urgent.

The government, therefore, decided that Admiral Calliard should occupy a couple of ports on the island of Mitylene, which is conveniently close to Smyrna. As should the government's impression that the Sultan will satisfactorily settle the monetary question without delay prove unjustified, and the customs receipts at Mitylene be not sufficient to meet the French claims, Smyrna can yet be occupied. In the meanwhile the occupation of the ports on the island of Mitylene is more convenient from a military point of view, as the French cannot be easily disturbed on that island, whereas, Smyrna being on the mainland, its occupation might have more serious developments than desired. The French government, however, trusts that the whole difficulty will be shortly arranged to the satisfaction and hopes that the treaty stipulations will be carried out by the issue of franchises, such as giving certain French schools permission to open which have thus far been withheld and also by giving official recognition throughout the Turkish empire to diplomas issued by the French medical faculty at Beirut, etc.

TO MASSACRE MEN.

Conspiracy in Philippines Connected by Bolomen Is Revealed.

Manila, Nov. 5.—A plot to massacre the American garrison at Marikina, province of Tarlac, island of Luzon, has been revealed by the wife of one of the conspirators.

Several of the town officials are implicated in the murderous scheme. The woman who revealed the plot had a detective beneath a house in which the members of the conspiracy were meeting. Arrests followed and many incriminating papers were seized.

The plan was to set fire to a house, close to the barracks, after dark, and when the soldiers came out to assist in extinguishing the flames, the conspirators, armed with knives, were to rush on the guard, capture their arms and proceed to massacre the garrison.

Commissioner Wright today took the oath of office as vice-governor. He will be acting governor during the convalescence of Governor Taft, who probably will be unable to resume his duties for some weeks to come.

The United States Philippine commission today passed the treason laws, with slight alterations. Several Filipinos spoke against them.

The Federalists are holding a convention to arrange for a petition to congress asking that body to grant autonomy to the Philippines, with a governor appointed by the president of the United States, with veto power over the two houses, the senate to consist of thirty members, fourteen of them to be named by the governor and sixteen to be elected. In case of the death of the governor it is proposed that his duties shall devolve upon the president of the senate temporarily.

The lower house, according to the proposed plan, shall consist of a representative for each 100,000 inhabitants. Finally, the Federalists desire that every Filipino be pardoned for political crimes arising from the war.

The sessions of the Federalist convention were noisy and turbulent. The chairman had difficulty in controlling the convention.

Paterno has been expelled from the Federal party, Buencamino saying that his union with Sabella Reyes for the formation of an anti-party divided him from connection with the Federalists. "The petition," Buencamino also said, "to be sent to congress must be as pure as crystal. It would not be so if Paterno were allowed to participate in it."

Paterno was formerly the president of the so-called Filipino cabinet. Buencamino is one of the directors of the Federal party, and was at one time a member of the so-called Filipino congress.

Roosevelt Back Home President Sends Congratulations to Mayor Seth Low.

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt returned to the city tonight at 9:30 from Oyster Bay, where he cast his ballot. With him were Mrs. Roosevelt, Secretary Cortelyou, Private Secretary Loch, and Mr. E. M. Rixey. The party occupied the private car between which was attached to the rear of the Florida & Southwestern express of the Pennsylvania railroad. On arrival here the president, after shaking hands with the porters, led the way with Mrs. Roosevelt to the carriage in waiting, and the party entered the city by the White House.

Quite a number of persons were assembled at the station, and the president lifted his hat several times in response to their salutations. An extra detail of police and a large force of secret service officers were on hand to see that no harm came to the president.

President Roosevelt was kept informed of the results of the election during the evening while aboard the train returning to Washington, and later at the White House by the Associated Press bulletins and by private dispatches. While anxious for news from every quarter, his greatest interest was in the result of the New York election, and he expressed deep satisfaction over the election of the fusion ticket there. Soon after reaching the White House he telegraphed his congratulations to Mayor Low, and later, when the election of Mr. Jerome appeared to be certain, he sent a telegram to the new district attorney.

MURDERERS USE BARREL Dead Man Is Found Doubled Up in a Four Streets.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The body of a man whose head had been almost severed from his body was discovered in a four barrel on a strip of prairie near Lake Street today. The victim's feet were securely bound in a guinea sack and the body doubled, from which it was apparent that his slayer, or slayers, had experienced difficulty in forcing the body into the receptacle. Beside the wound on the neck, there was a deep gash on the man's face.

The man is believed to be Antonio Napoli, who, with twenty-five other Italian laborers reached Chicago last night from Iowa Center, Iowa. The address: "Salvador Luigi M. Negro, 423 1/2 South Clark street," was found on a letter in the dead man's coat. On this firm's books was found the name, "Antonio Napoli," and his address was given as "Box 43, Livermore, Iowa."

The police description of the man is as follows: "From 25 to 30 years old, dark hair and complexion, red mustache, curly, wavy, cutaway suit, celluloid collar, purple tie, dark bow tie, and a pair of two workmen discovered the body. They were attracted by the stench that came from a barrel lying on its side. They investigated and then notified the police, who advanced the opinion that the man had been murdered last night. Chief of Police O'Connell said that the workmen who discovered the body had intended, and suggested that the man had been made the victim of some vendetta, as a dollar was found on the body."

Later Rocco Canzone, a saloon keeper, identified the body as that of Antonio Napoli, whom he had not recognized in Chicago a year ago. The place where the barrel was found has been used as a dumping ground. Twelve years ago it furnished another murder mystery which has never been cleared up. The victim of this old crime was Amelia Olson, a domestic.

After an investigation, detectives declared that the murder had not been committed where the body was found, but that the gruesome burden had been brought to the spot in a wagon. The barrel had been secured at both ends, but in dumping it out of the vehicle one of the heads had been knocked out. Had it not been for this accident, the attempt to conceal the crime would probably have been successful.

IS STILL ALIVE Someone Claims to Have Seen Kidnapped Miss Stone.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 5.—The exchange of communications with the brigands is still going on. It has been ascertained that the band intended to kidnap Mr. Hovine, a missionary at Salonica, at the same time as Miss Stone, but the design failed. Two days before Miss Stone was abducted brigands fired five shots at a garage near Radozev, and the local authorities knowing there were bandits in the neighborhood should have supplied an escort.

New York, Nov. 5.—A dispatch to the World from Samakoy, Bulgaria, says: "Miss Ellen M. Stone and Mrs. Tolkia have been seen within the last two days by emissaries sent by the American diplomatic agent from Sofia to treat with the brigands."

REPUBLICANS GAIN GREAT VICTORY OVER TAMMANY

Low Is Elected Second Mayor of Greater New York by Plurality of From 30,000 to 40,000.

LATE REPORT CONFIRMS VAN WYCK'S DEFEAT

Jerome, for District Attorney, Has Been Elected by Comfortable Majority, as Indicated by Latest Returns—Great New York Fusion Ticket Wins Complete Triumph—Results of Elections From Other Sections of the Country.

New York, Nov. 5.—Seth Low, former president of the Columbia University, and four years ago the citizen union candidate for the first mayor of Greater New York, was elected today the second mayor of Greater New York by a plurality ranging anywhere from 30,000 to 40,000, defeating Edward M. Shepard, of Brooklyn, the Democratic nominee. The campaign was an exciting one, and the vote, though somewhat less than in the presidential election a year ago, was the largest ever polled in a municipal contest in this country.

In the election to the canvass for mayor, public interest largely centered in the nomination by the Fusionists of William Travers Jerome, for district attorney, and Mayor Robert A. Van Wyck, by the Democrats for justice of the supreme court, who were voted for only in the fusion ticket in New York City. The day, which was topped at Center street, returned received up to 11 o'clock indicate that Jerome has been elected by a comfortable plurality and that Mayor Van Wyck has been defeated, the latter running behind his ticket from 15,000 to 20,000.

Returns also indicate the complete triumph here of the great New York fusion ticket, Charles Vincent Forness, the nominee of the Citizens Union and the Republicans for president of the board of aldermen, defeating George A. Van Hoesen, the Democratic nominee, E. M. Grout, for the past four years Democratic president of the board of aldermen, and the Fusionist nominee for the comptroller has also defeated W. W. Ladd, Jr., Democrat.

Returns from local borough and county tickets are incomplete. Complete returns received here from Staten Island, however, show that Nicholas Biddle, a Fusionist, has been defeated in his canvass for president of the borough of Richmond by Geo. Cromwell, Fusionist. In the borough of Queens the election of Joseph Carlsby, Democrat, as president of borough, over Henry Doherty, Republican, and Robert B. Lawrence, Democrat, is conceded. In the boroughs of Brooklyn, Manhattan and the Bronx additional and possibly official returns will be required to determine the results of borough president and local officers.

Reports received from the various sections of New York state show that the Republicans have gained a decided victory in the state legislature, the number of Republicans and Democratic assemblies not differing materially from the figures of preceding years. In the various municipal contests reported from up the state the most interesting elections were in Albany, Buffalo, Troy, Rochester, Syracuse, and Buffalo. The city of Albany was carried by the Republicans, ex-Senator David R. Hill taking no active part in the local campaign. The election in Troy was a lively one, a number of arrests for illegal voting being made. In Buffalo, the Fusionist candidate, Mayor Murphy headed the fight for the candidate of the Democrats, while Governor B. S. P. Murphy headed the fight for the progressive Democratic-Republican ticket. Samuel R. Conway, the candidate for mayor, supported by ex-Governor B. S. P. Murphy, was easily elected. The entire city and county tickets were elected, Trustee C. Knight, the state comptroller, being chosen mayor. The result in Rochester was close, but Mayor Warner's friends claim the election of the Republican candidate.

After several weeks of the voters casting their ballots in the city, a municipal election the day when the ballots were cast passed with unusual quiet, considering the high feeling that had previously been exhibited. There were a few fights at the polls among individuals, but none of a serious nature, and not a few of the more prominent of these were on charges of a technical character. Few prisoners were held by the magistrates.

The great feature of the voting was the early casting of ballots. This applied to the Brownstones as well as the tenements. In the latter, the voting was going on up to 6 o'clock, but after that hour there was nothing to keep the most faithful voters from the polls. Seth Low, Fusion candidate for mayor, cast his ballot at 7:45 a. m. Edward M. Shepard, the Democratic candidate, voted at 11:30. Richard Croker and his two sons were number one and two in their own polling places a minute after 8 a. m. Senator Depeu dropped his ballot into the box at 3:5 a. m. and Mayor Van Wyck waited until 2 p. m.

The practice of using a voting machine was discontinued in the district which elected the Fusion ticket. In the district immediately after the polls were closed, no difficulty was experienced in recording the vote, and in many instances men cast their votes in less than three seconds.

An incident which attracted attention in New York city was the refusal of the Fusion judges to give credit to a city voter to cast his ballot because he had made a lot of a box of cigars on the results of the election.

Richard Croker received the returns in what is known as the "private room" of Tammy Hall. The leader was surrounded by a crowd of men here prominent in the organization, among them John F. Carroll, Deputy Mayor, Mayor Van Wyck, Corporation Counsel Whelan, and City Chamberlain E. C. Crane. Mr. Croker sat at the green table and listened with his customary lack of expression as the ballots were read. When the first returns were unfavorable, and the crowd of leaders heard the figures called out without comment. Mr. Croker from time to time directed that comparisons be made with the vote last year.

Mayor Van Wyck, who was a candidate for the supreme court bench, and who was bitterly assailed during the campaign was an interested listener as the returns came in.

Crowds such as are seen on the night of presidential elections surrounded the bulletin boards of the newspaper offices. Because of the danger of accidents resulting from the many people gathered near the city hall, some 10 policemen were on hand. A cordon was formed which practically shut out Park row from the head of Beekman street to the bridge entrance, and the streets leading into Park Row at that point were closed. The street cars were stopped at Center street.

About 11 o'clock tonight Seth Low gave out a statement in which he said: "The outcome of this election is a splendid vindication of universal suffrage. From all parts of the city have come the votes that have rebuked the Tammany machine for four years. All the patronage of the city and countless money have not availed against the crushed indignation of the people, and it is safe to say that absolute government and government for private gain will not be even again in New York City for many a year. This is no man's triumph but it is the people's victory. The agencies that have brought it about are many. Those who labored so long and so patiently to bring about the successful fusion of many elements and those who lay out state remained devoted with him for nearly an hour. It was after this conference that Mr. Croker announced: 'This is my last campaign.'"

It is now said that Daniel F. McMahon will call a meeting of the executive committee within a week, when Mr. Croker will tender his resignation, and on motion of Senator Timothy D. Sullivan, John F. Carroll will be elected the new leader of Tammany Hall.

IN OHIO

REPUBLICANS CARRY STATE BY INCREASED PLURALITY. Everybody in State of Excitement is Asking "What Did It?"

Columbus, O., Nov. 5.—The Republicans today carried Ohio by such increased plurality on their state ticket and with such an enlarged majority in the legislature as to cause all sorts of comment on "what did it?" The result continues the Republicans in power in the state, making an epoch of 12 years in succession for that party in Ohio, and it insures the reelection of Senator Foraker.

The Republican success is attributed to the attitude of John R. McLean, the Democratic candidate for governor two years ago and the Ohio member of the Democratic national committee, to the superior organization of the Republicans and the result largely to the popular desire not to disturb the prevailing prosperity. In accordance with Senator Hanna's appeal to "let well enough alone," to the desire to support President Roosevelt in carrying out the policy of the late President McKinley, and to induce Governor Nash and Senator Foraker.

The Republicans are so elated over their triumph that they are talking of Congressman Dick, who has been chairman of their state committee for eleven years, for governor two years hence, when Senator Hanna stands for reelection, and it is generally predicted that John R. McLean then will be the Democratic candidate for senate. It is believed that Charles R. Baker, of Cincinnati, who has been an avowed candidate against Foraker, will receive the complimentary vote of the Democratic members in the present legislature for senator. Hamilton county, which includes Cincinnati, sent a mixed delegation to the legislature when John R. McLean, Democrat, carried that county for governor. The delegation then had only two Republicans. This year the delegation consists of 13 Republicans. Lucas county had two Republican members in the legislature. The county of Adams and Pike counties.
